Stoughton Announces New Dealer in Southern United States

STOUGHTON, Wis. (April 6, 2026)—Stoughton Trailers, a national leader in transportation equipment, announces the addition of Peach State Truck Centers as an authorized dealer through the formation of Sovereign Trailers. Sovereign Trailers, a new dedicated commercial trailer dealership will represent Stoughton in the states of Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.

Peach State is one of the largest commercial vehicle dealer groups in the Southeast with more than 700 employees and 14 locations. Peach State represents Freightliner and Western Star class 8 trucks. Sovereign Trailers and Peach State Truck Centers bring together 5 decades of commercial vehicle expertise.

“We are thrilled to add the team at Sovereign to our dealer network,” said Derrick Washington, Vice President of Sales for Stoughton Trailers. “Peach State is well known and highly regarded in the region for their industry knowledge and service. Their facilities and team members are top notch. We are confident the creation of the Sovereign Trailers business will provide fleet customers in the Southeast with excellent trailer sales and service.”

“The launch of Sovereign Trailers and our partnership with Stoughton Trailers reflect our continued commitment to making a positive difference for our customers, extending the same standard of service, expertise, and long-term relationships that have defined us for decades, into the trailer business,” said Rick Reynolds, President of Peach State Truck Centers.

Sovereign Trailers will inventory Stoughton dry vans and refrigerated trailers at locations in Jefferson and Villa Rica, Georgia and Birmingham, Alabama. Trailer sales and trailer parts sales and service will be provided at Peach State locations across the southeast.
