Stoughton Trailers Purchases Additional Land in Brodhead, Wis.

STOUGHTON, Wis. (Thursday, April 13, 2017) — STI Holdings, Inc. and its operating subsidiary, Stoughton Trailers, LLC, a global leader in transportation equipment, are pleased to announce the purchase of land in the City of Brodhead, Wis.

Stoughton Trailers has purchased approximately 17 acres of vacant real estate in the City of Brodhead. The land is situated directly across the street from the Stoughton Trailers Brodhead manufacturing plant at 302 23rd St.

“The Stoughton Trailers Brodhead manufacturing facility is a critical component of our manufacturing footprint,” said Stoughton Trailers President and CEO Bob Wahlin. “This acquisition will help strengthen our manufacturing operations, and it also demonstrates our commitment to the City of Brodhead. We are grateful for the support of Mayor Doug Pinnow, the Brodhead City Council, and Mike Johnson, Executive Director of Green County Development Corporation, for their assistance in making this acquisition a reality. We are proud to be a member of the Brodhead business community, and this acquisition will certainly help us solidify and grow our operations there.”

“The City of Brodhead is pleased with the efforts of GCDC in facilitating the deal with STI Holdings for the purchase of city land adjoining its facility,” said Mayor Doug Pinnow. “We are happy to see a great business choose to invest and grow in our community, wish them much success, and look forward to working with them in the future.”

Stoughton Trailers plans to use the land to support its current manufacturing operations in Brodhead. The purchase also provides for potential future expansion should the need arise. Stoughton Trailers employs more than 1,500 people at operations in Stoughton, Evansville and Brodhead, Wis. The Brodhead facility employs 450 people and manufactures semi-truck trailers for over-the-road trucking.
